

June 21, 2019

Media Inquiries:

Contact: Rashonna Moore

323.825.9815

clear_picture_productions@hotmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brandon “Scoop B” Robinson to speak at Edurec Youth and Family Fun Center

Edurec Youth and Family Fun Community Center host Brandon “Scoop B” Robinson

Tulsa, Oklahoma — July 12, 2019 — Edurec Youth and Family Fun Center Brandon

“Scoop B” Robinson will be the guest speaker for their youth mentoring event. “We love to have the youth see and hear from actual people who have and are actually in the career fields that they aspire to be in, letting them know and see that they can also achieve their goals if they stick to it and don’t give up” said Charles Harper, Community Director at Edurec Youth and Family Fun Center .

The mission of EduRec (Education- Recreational, Inc.) is to provide an academic enrichment and fun facility for inner-city youth that will build self-esteem, improve academics, athletic performance, and give an introduction to business skills that will build character and develop self discipline.

“We want the children to see and feel that they can do whatever they set their minds to and there is more career fields that they can get into other than athletes and entertainment,” said

Damali Wilson, Executive Director.

###

For more information, press only:

Media and PR contact:

Rashonna Moore

323.825.9815

clear_picture_productions@hotmail.com

For more information on event:

<https://www.facebook.com/events/417127485557731/>